EXPLANATION OF H. F. 128

This bill gives judges of the Supreme Court the same allowance for expenses as is now granted to judges of the District Court.

Section 605.2, Code 1950, now provides as follows: “Where the judge of the District Court is required, in the discharge of his official duties, to leave the county of his residence or leave the city or town of his residence to perform such duties, he shall be paid such actual and necessary hotel and living expenses not to exceed the sum of six dollars per day and transportation expenses as shall be incurred.”

At present the judges of the Supreme Court are compelled to pay their own expenses when absent from home in the discharge of official duties in connection with holding sessions of court. This amendment will have the first line of said section read: “Where a judge of the Supreme or District Court,” etc.
